

Bronx Arts Ensemble's 50th Anniversary Gala Emcee

Roger Clark

1...2...3...4...Roger Clark is not just the NY1 reporter up for any story, he's an accomplished drummer and lifelong music enthusiast. Born in the Bronx and moving to Staten Island, then Queens when he was young, the current Manhattan resident counts Brooklyn as the only borough he has yet to reside in.

Starting at NY1 in 2001, Roger counts his role reporting in his hometown as a dream come true. Whether he's dressed as a cannoli on Mulberry Street, or reporting from one of the city's many cultural institutions or parks, Roger is always game for a challenge and shining a light on the best the city has to offer

When he's not in the office, you can find Roger hanging out with wife Jenny and son Jack, coaching Jack's youth basketball team, hiking in Van Cortlandt and Riverdale Parks, or just searching for the ultimate slice of pizza.

Photo is Courtesy: Metropolitan Magazine/Paul Prince

<https://www.ny1.com/nyc/all-boroughs/on-air/2017/08/31/roger-clark>